SEMI ANNUAL MEETING OF STUDENT BODY

Great Interest Shown In Discussion.

DEAN ADAMS SPOKE.

The Canadian Club Recognized On Its Own Basis.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Students' Society yesterday, many resolutions were passed and much business transacted. A comparatively large number of men were present, and the interest in the business on hand was sustained throughout.

The president, "Billy" Nicholson, was in the chair. After the opening of the meeting, he called for the reading of minutes. He then delivered a short address in which he summarized the work of the different clubs and the activities up to the present time. The meeting was then thrown open to further business and open discussion.

One of the first motions to be brought up was one dealing with the C.O.T.C. It was to the effect that the C.O.T.C. should be reorganized as an active part of the present curriculum. A good deal of discussion on both sides of this subject then followed, and when it was finally put to the vote, in two divisions, the second part, namely that the C.O.T.C. should be reorganized, met with the approval of the meeting, but the other part, which suggested that military training become a part of the curriculum, was defeated.

While the discussion was still on things military, resolutions of appreciation and thanks were passed to the following gentlemen: To Col. Stark for his untiring services as Commandant of the C.O.T.C., and for his many personal favors he did to many McGill men; to Dr. Adams, for his valuable work overseas in connection with the Khaki University, by which many men were enabled to enter our College; and to Dr. Tait and his companion officers who commanded the first McGill Battery, which shed such renown on the name of McGill. Other discussion followed, dealing with the Literary and Debating Society, Football and Gym. classes. The floor was then given to Dean Adams, who addressed the meeting. (Continued from page 3.)

HARRIERS' RUN WAS POSTPONED

Harriers Will Run, But Not Showshoe—Meet On Friday.

Many of the McGill Harriers were very disappointed when they awoke and looked out of their windows, for the ground was covered to a depth of about two inches with snow. Later on in the day this snow became saturated with water, and the proposed inter-faculty meet was almost out of question.

However, as full arrangements had been made with the various faculties to allow all men who were entering the contest to be absent from lectures after four o'clock, many of the harriers turned up at the Stadium at 4.15 sharp. Here they found "B.H." Antill waiting. Reasons for holding the run, and putting it off until a later date, were advanced by different parties. The chief reasons given for holding the run was to be able to select men for the Intercollegiate team, and to give the men a practice under these unfavorable conditions in case similar obstacles should be met on the 15th. The argument advanced by the other side was to the effect that half the men were not present, and that those who ran would probably be unable to run on the 15th.

A vote was taken, and at the rate of 10 to 2, it determined to postpone the inter-faculty meet until Friday, Nov. 7th, at 4.15 p.m., and that it would be held rain or shine over the same ground as the Intercollegiate run.

REUNION AT THE WESLEYAN FOR VETERANS

Many Graduates and Undergraduates Present.

SEVERAL EVENTS.

Dinner, "Sing," Devotional Service and Athletic Meets Features Of Function.

The Wesleyan College has been a buzz of activity for the last two days. A reunion was held Tuesday and Wednesday of graduates and undergraduates of the college in honor of the students and graduates who took part in the Great War. An excellent programme had been provided for the two days. Unfortunately, owing to the bad weather, several of the events had to be called off. Football and basketball matches, which were to have been held Tuesday were postponed. Games and sports were held at the Central Y.M.C.A. instead. Yesterday afternoon, the residents of the building were to take auto drives to points of interest in the city. This, also, was called off, and further sports were provided at the Y.M.C.A. as a substitute.

Tuesday night, a dinner was given in the James Ferrier Hall in honor of the Wesleyan men who served in the war. One hundred students, theological and non-theological, fifty past students, members of the Faculty and the Board of Governors were present at the dinner.

Dr. Smyth, principal of the college, presided. After a splendid dinner, the toast to The King was drunk; following this, Lieut. W. P. Bunt proposed the toast to the College, elaborating on the purpose of the College. This toast was replied to by Sergts. Maxwell and Fife.

Miss Lawrence, who has been matron of the College for twenty years, was presented with a purse of money by Captain Burnett on behalf of the College. With a few well-chosen words, Miss Lawrence thanked the students, past and present, of the Wesleyan, who remembered her at their celebration.

This was followed by the toast to "The Laddies Who Fought and Won." Mr. Hanson, in proposing this toast, made allusion to the esteem and respect of the College for the men who left to fight for their ideals. He was pleased to welcome them home again. Mr. Dawson, supporting Mr. Hanson's toast, referred to the duty of the returned men as leaders in the reconstruction period. Lieuts. Stafford and Burton and Sergt. Davis replied to the toast on behalf of the veterans.

Lieut. C. W. Topping, president of the Students' Council, was presented with a "staff of office." He made a brief review of the activities being planned for this session in the Wesleyan College along athletic, religious, social and literary lines.

Sergts. Pearson and White and Pte. Turrell added a musical touch to the vocal selections were greatly enjoyed programme. Their instrumental and by the guests. Mr. James McBride closed the evening with a tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Smyth.

The sports which were planned for yesterday morning had to be abandoned, owing to the bad weather, and a morning of aquatic sports was held at the Central Y.M.C.A.

Last evening, tea was served in the College dining room. Immediately afterwards, the guests moved to the reception room, where a "community sing" was held. Everyone was given a chance to take an active part here, and every person present had a splendid time. Besides all the well-known choruses, solos were given by residents in the building, and by non-resident theological students. Messrs. Caldwell and Forsythe furnished instrumental

ARTS SMOKER LAST EVENING HUGE SUCCESS

Music, Boxing and Wrestling.

150 PRESENT.

Dean Moyse, the Vice-Principal, and Dr. Walter Spoke.

Quite 150 men were present last night at the Arts Undergrad. Smoker in the Union. The whole affair went off without a hitch, and by the very outspoken comments of all those present, the executive are in line for hearty congratulations.

As soon as the business meeting had been brought to a close, the Mandolin Club opened the proceedings by rendering "Chong." The applause was hearty, and the club is certainly to be congratulated on their work. At all times throughout the evening they were on the spot whenever they were called upon to contribute a selection.

After the applause had died down sufficiently, and when all had had time to refill their pipes with the excellent "tabac canadien-francais" supplied by the executive, Mr. Adams obliged with a very much appreciated cornet solo. The Strathcona Banjo Club, under the able direction of Mr. MacKlalar, next contributed some selections. The applause showed without a doubt that the club is well able to live up to the standard set by its high-sounding name.

Following the announcement of the next item by Mr. Adair, the audience formed a ring around the mat which had been laid in the adjacent landing. Surrounded by the enthusiastic crowd of experts, Messrs. Brouse and Medor staged a very well contested match. The opponents were very well matched, the bout ending in a tie.

The principal speakers of the evening having not yet arrived from a previous engagement, the ever-ready Mandolin Club, under the able direction of Mr. Peate, played "Blowing Bubbles."

A spontaneous outbreak of applause then announced the arrival of Dean Moyse. After stating that he had just come from a lecture on Ancient Thebes, Continued on page 4

SLUSH COULD NOT STOP SENIOR TEAM

Workout Was Held At Stadium Yesterday In Spite Of Weather.

The Senior McGill team held a practice at the Stadium yesterday afternoon. In spite of four inches of snow on the field, the men gamely wallowed around for an hour, in slush well over their ankles, under the watchful eye of "Shag." Most of the time was put in on scrimmage work and signals.

Owing to the poor condition of the field, as a result of the recent bad weather, the intermediate game against R.M.C. on Saturday will be played at the M.A.A.A. To avoid needlessly chopping up the gridiron, the second team practised behind the goal-lines at the Stadium yesterday afternoon, while the Seniors did their best not to damage the turf more than was necessary.

"Shag" appeals to the students to back the men both in the game against Queen's next Saturday, and in the big game against Varsity on the 15th. He hopes the Rooters' Club will soon be able to get in a few rehearsals, to get into shape for these two games. It is up to the students to do their share now. The team has certainly shown keen determination to win. The fact that they turned out yesterday in the slush and drizzle is an example of their unconquerable spirit. With so game a team, the least the rest of us can do is to turn out with the Rooters and root at the next two games. With the enthusiastic support of the student body, Old McGill should come out on top. We did it at Toronto, and we'll do it here.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1919.

THE CANADIAN CLUB

After a four year's period of amalgamation brought about by adverse conditions created by the war, the Literary and Debating Society, and the Canadian Club of McGill have severed their connection with each other. No other two clubs at the university are more important in student circles nor are more deserving of support, consequently during the dark days, rather than allow one to drop, they joined hands for the common good.

Now with a brighter and bigger field it has been evident that greater results could be accomplished by both working separately along their respective lines. Consequently the proposal as outlined by Acting Principal Adams last evening met with the approval of everyone present, and as a result the Canadian Club of McGill starts off again on her pre-war basis.

There is no society at McGill which should appeal so strongly to the true Canadian. To reiterate the words of the speaker last evening the men who are to have the greatest say in the management of our national affairs in the future are the college men of the Dominion, and it is therefore of vital importance that they be thoroughly acquainted with the great problems affecting our country. The programme which was suggested included the holding of discussions led by men well-informed on the topic in hand, intermixed with addresses by men of prominence here as well as of other countries. With such in view the success of the club from the standpoint of the student should be assured, and the spirit of initial meeting of the club will, no doubt, inspire the newly formed executive to the greatest efforts in the securing of the very best speakers to be had anywhere.

THE RIGHT IDEA

The Arts Undergraduate Smoker held last night in the Union was, all things considered, a fairly satisfactory exemplification of that sort of social function which is best capable of fostering college spirit. The utter absence of formation and the pervading feeling of fellowship and fraternalism are the characteristics which contribute the real value of such student gatherings.

It is such functions as this which justify the existence of the Union which, as we have on various occasions pointed out, is lacking to a deplorable extent in that variety of attractions which appeal to the student body as a whole.

Editorial Note

In yesterday's Daily there appeared an editorial with reference to the reading room in the Union. While the committee can not but plead guilty to a certain degree of negligence in allowing the matter to go on so long without something being done towards securing the necessary reading material, yet we learn that it was not "sheer oversight" as we were at first led to believe.

Quite some time ago an endeavor was made by the secretary to get the usual amount of reading material, but owing to the strike of magazine printers it was impossible to secure subscriptions.

However, to-day we notice a number of the new editions in the place of the old ones, so no further inconvenience on the part of the student body is anticipated.

FINGER-SLASHING EPIDEMIC.

A few days ago it was apparent that a new variety of very serious disease had cropped out in our midst, being confined not only to the men members of the student body, but also among the ladies. No less than five parties reported that they had become infected by permitting some keen-edged instrument to come into contact with certain of their hands' terminal members. We hope that this, which apparently has assumed the proportions of an epidemic, will soon be under control. We greatly regret hearing of these misfortunes, and hope for a speedy recovery.

FROM THE CHESTNUT TREE.

"He bent his wife up."
"Assaulted her?"
"Oh, no! He merely got up in the morning before she did."

KNEW BY THE HONK.

A portly Dutch woman applied at the post office for a money order to send to her son in the Far East. She told the clerk she had left her son's letter at home, but said he was "some place out by China dot sounds like der noise an automobile makes."

The clerk smiled and turning to another nearby he said: "What kind of a noise does an automobile make, Joe?"

"Honk, honk!" the other suggested. "Yah, dot's it," exclaimed the woman, her face brightening. "Honk, honk, dot's der place."

So the clerk made the order payable at Hong Kong, and the woman went away happy.—Boston Transcript.

Editor, McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:—

I have been asked to express my opinion on the subject of education in sex-hygiene, in view of Dr. Withrow's presence in the city.

Some of us, who are, or have been, constantly brought into touch with the results of ignorance find it hard to realize that there are still parents of the old school, who not only are afraid to educate their own children in regard to the origin of human life, but who actually denounce those who would assume the responsibility on their behalf, believing very rightly that children will learn themselves in due course. Yes, children do learn, and most of us know how vile is the pictures presented of that fact which is in reality so beautiful.

The young men or women students who refuse to accept such an opportunity as is presented by Dr. Withrow's lectures, films and slides, have either been unusually fortunate in the selection of their parents or have read carefully themselves, or are flying in the face of Providence in wilfully hiding from themselves the truth as to the origin of life. May I appeal most earnestly to all students to go and hear Dr. Withrow, not once but twice.

Yours truly,

J. HOWARD T. FALK,
Director Social Service Dept.

REUNION AT WESLEYAN FOR VETERANS

accompaniments to the songs. The results of the two days' sports at the Y.M.C.A. were announced, and presentations were made to the winners. The winner of the highest aggregate of points was the Rev. Mr. Johnson, with 18 points to his credit.

At eight o'clock a devotional service was held in the James Ferrier Hall in memory of the boys who gave their lives. The regular order of devotional service was followed, with a sermon by Principal Smyth. The names of those who were slain were read.

This brought to a close the first of the social activities of the Wesleyan College for this season. Professor Graham, who originated the idea of this reunion; Mr. Parkes, who looked after the musical and social end of the programme; and Messrs. Johnson and W. P. Bunt, who had charge of the athletic events, are to be congratulated on the splendid way in which the function was handled. The steward of the building, Mr. Underhill, deserves credit for the excellent dining room arrangements.

The programmes of the reunion, featuring the Wesleyan colors—red, white and purple—on the cover, are especially valuable as souvenirs. They are beautifully gotten up, and contain, besides the menu and toasts of the dinner, the programme of the athletic meets and the choruses of all the songs used in the "sing."

It is the intention of the executive of the Wesleyan to continue social functions at least once a month during the whole session. Now that such an excellent start has been made, and college spirit awakened, there is no doubt that things will go with a great amount of "snap." While the succeeding functions will necessarily be on a smaller scale, they cannot fail to be of interest to the residents of the building. A series of impromptu debates, of "community sings," of lectures and entertainments is projected.

R.V.C. NOTES

R. V. C. '20.
There will be a class meeting of R. V. C. '20 at one o'clock to-day, in the Common Room.

UNDERGRADUATE MEETING.
There will be a meeting of the Undergraduate Society on Friday, Nov. 7th, at one o'clock, in the Common Room. Capt. J. M. Humphrey, M.L., will give a short address on the Victory Loan. Even though you feel you cannot buy a bond, show your patriotic and college spirit by attending this meeting.

DR. WITHEROW'S LECTURE FOR R. V. C.
Dr. Witherow will give a lecture on "How Life Begins," illustrated with moving-picture films, in the Central Y.M.C.A. Hall, at four o'clock Thursday afternoon, November 6th. This lecture will be intensely interesting and all students of R.V.C. are invited to come and bring their friends. Tickets are free and may be obtained from envelopes underneath the notice board on the desk-shelf. Do not miss this opportunity to hear Dr. Witherow, who is an eminent authority on sex education.

CAFETERIA OFFERS MORE ADVANTAGES

Supper Can Now Be Purchased For Forty Five Cents.

The interest in the Students' Cafeteria is still very encouraging. So much so that it has been decided to offer some further advantages for the benefit of the students as a whole. The service in the Dining Hall has been materially improved during the past week, and it is anticipated that further delays in service will not be possible. At present the breakfast may be purchased either by the a la carte method or the flat rate of thirty five cents, students' mid-day dinner is also the same, the flat rate in this case being forty five cents. The supper has up to the present been only a la carte. The management, however, always desirous to cater to the students and encouraged by the success of the cafeteria to date, have determined to inaugurate a flat rate of forty five cents for this meal. It is hoped that the students will take advantage of this innovation, and always patronize our own dining hall.

ing on the Canadian Club. He first outlined the development of the scheme of Canadian Clubs, from their origin at Hamilton some years ago. He then dwelt for some time on the necessity of such organizations for the good of Canada and the development of the members, and showed the importance of a University like McGill having such a club, promising every support from those in authority. His words met with the full approval of those present.

"Billy" Nicholson again took the floor on the Dean's retirement, and called for the election of officers. The following men were chosen to fill the various offices:

President—C. H. Adair, of Arts.
Vice-pres.—MacFarlane, of Science.
Secretary—A. Terroux, of Law.
Treasurer—Hodding, of Medicine.

Great interest was shown in this election, every position being keenly contested, and the count was very close on every occasion.

It might be explained in this connection that previous to the outbreak of the war, the Canadian Club was a very strong and energetic club, but soon after the beginning of hostilities it was merged into the Literary and Debating Society, under one executive, in order that in union there might be strength. This year, however, the executive of the latter club decided that with the reorganization of many defunct clubs, the Canadian Club should be reconstructed on its own basis, and forwarded a recommendation to that effect to the Students' Council some time ago. Great hope is expressed for the success of this club, chiefly because of the experience and ability of the officers chosen; all of whom have filled prominent offices previously (Mr. Adair was president last year of the "Lit" and of the Canadian Club as it then existed), and because of the enthusiasm and interest shown at yesterday's meetings.

LEAGUE BASKETBALL.

It has been decided to admit the cities of Calgary and Edmonton, Alberta, to the Western Canada League next year. If the proposed six-club league proves to be a success, two more clubs, located at Vancouver and Victoria, British Columbia, will in all likelihood be added in 1921.

Macdonald News

MAC'S ORCHESTRA HIGHLY EFFICIENT

Will Furnish Music At the Concert This Evening.

The orchestra at Macdonald is a live organization this year. Like other branches of student activity, it is endeavoring to attain a high standard of efficiency and merit, in order that those who take part in it may receive some benefit as well as pleasure for the time they devote to it, and also to afford entertainment to those who hear it play.

At the concert to-night the students will have the opportunity of listening to the orchestra upon its first appearance this year. When you have heard it, and if you like it, well and good, if you don't, refrain from being too critical—remember that those in the orchestra have had little time to practise, and have done their best to supply you with musical entertainment.

The orchestra are working under difficulties. Several more parts are urgently needed. One or two cornets, another cello and two drums.

There is your chance boys—who will play the drums.

RIFLE CLUB.

"Get to business" was the slogan at the meeting of the Leaders last night. Everybody was agreed that the first practice should be held soon. However, such little matters as the drawing up of a constitution, election of officers, deciding on membership regulations, and the choosing of the time for the first shoot, had to be attended to. As is usually the case at meetings of this kind, there was much talking. The results, when sorted out, show that the following executive was elected:

President—C. R. Brighton, '21.
Sec.-Treasurer—T. G. Major, '21.
Committee—A. R. Jones, '21.
J. A. Pettress, '22.
C. Drummond, '23.

The membership is limited to twenty-four, returned men having first option up to noon on Saturday next. There is no membership fee, each member purchasing his own ammunition as required. The first shoot will be held at 6.45 p.m. on Friday. If you are a returned man, and interested, have a look at the notice column above.

HOLIDAY NOTES.

Quite a commotion was created among the juvenile element in the gallery of the Assembly Hall, when Mr. Milne came in.

An "Aggie" who was fortunate enough to slip in by the guards at the Military Hospital, was spotted on the top of the limousine upon which he was riding by H.R.H. He stepped up and shaking hands, said, "I admire your nerve, young man."

An interesting incident relating to the Prince was told the writer by a returned man. One day when a certain unit was located above the Somme, the Prince who was inspecting their particular billets asked a big Irishman from what province he came. Murphy replied quite broad and lustily, "From the States, sor!" Whereupon His Highness, hearing this rather unexpected reply, blushed quite profusely.

A considerable amount of fun and merriment this afternoon occurred when the students, both boys and girls, were allowed to hop the autos when the Prince left for the hospital. Some conspicuous cases of mud baths were experienced, but nobody cared for these.

CANADA NEEDS MONEY

War Expenditures Still to Be Met From Proceeds of Victory Loan.

The war is over and won; but Canada's main expenditures for war will not be complete until well on into 1920. The $610,000,000 raised last year has all been spent, $400,000,000 having been largely devoted to soldiers—to maintaining them, bringing them home, providing the necessary medical services, training them. Most of the balance of the loan was lent to Great Britain to enable her to buy our surplus products. And money is still necessary—for soldiers, for providing markets, for our surplus products, for the needs of reconstruction. And that is why another Victory Loan is necessary. Canada still needs money, and needs it badly.

The inauguration of an aerial freight service between New York and Cuba took place the other day, when a seaplane, carrying $100,000 worth of fountain pens, left Brooklyn, for Havana. were to be made at Atlantic City, New Jersey; Norfolk, Virginia; Wilmington, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; Savannah, Ga.; Jacksonville, Miami, and Key West, Florida.

COLLEGE LIT. HAS DRAWN UP FINE PROGRAM

Interclass Debates and Entertainments Arranged.

ELOCUTION CONTEST.

Three Prizes Will Be Awarded In Each Division.

The Executive of the College Literary Society met last evening to arrange a part of the programme for the year's work.

The subject of inter-class debates was discussed, and it was decided to hold the first debate between Freshmen and Sophomore Aggies on Dec. 3rd, and the Senior-Junior debate in January. Formerly the Junior-Senior debate was held first, but this year, owing to the great amount of work in the senior year with the Chicago Judging team and thesis work, it was decided to hold the Freshmen-Sophomore debate first. Both teams have a month in which to prepare, and it is hoped that both sides will start in earnest preparation.

The usual Elocutionary Contest is announced for Nov. 28. This contest is divided into two divisions, one being for the women students, including both Science and Teachers, and the other for the men. The subject matter need not be original, but may be any reading, recitation or original contribution learned by the contestant. The time allowed for each contestant shall not exceed 8 minutes. In each division 3 prizes are awarded—First, $5; second, $3; third, $2. Those intending to compete must hand in their names to the secretary not later than Nov. 21st. The number of contestants to each division is limited to 5. This makes competition irrespective of classes. In former years it has been difficult to get even 5 for each division, but it is hoped that a good number this year will prepare for this contest.

P.P.—In the entertainment part of the society, local talent concerts are arranged for every two weeks. It is earnestly desired that all the students will take an interest in this work and help to make the college year a success.

Outside local talent concerts are being arranged, but no definite dates can be announced at present. The Apollo Glee Club and the McGill Glee Club will appear after Xmas.

NOTICES.

LEADSLINGERS RIFLE CLUB.

Any returned men wishing to join this club will please give their names to T. G. Major before noon on Saturday next. The first shoot will be held on Friday next at 6.45 p.m.

MUSICAL EVENING.

A musical evening, under the College Literary Society, will be held this evening in the Assembly Hall. A very interesting programme is assured. "Fussers" are requested to avoid the back part of the hall.

Sophomore, who have not already done so, are requested to see the class treasurer, Room 129, at once.

Basketball players don't delay! All interested in the new forming "bush" league see J. D. Sutherland at once.

The Managing Editor wishes to apologize to the Junior Science Girls for a recent slip in these columns. The volunteer waiting in the dining room is carried on by all the Science Girls and not only by the Senior Science as was previously stated.

Notes

The teachers of Section A had an excellent basketball practice under the careful guidance of Helen Casselman and May Fowler. The section turned out almost as a body, thus showing the athletic spirit of the School for Teachers. This is a good tip for the other sections to bring their "pep" up to that of Section A's.

AN APOLOGY.

We regret very much a serious misprint which occurred to the following sentence—"The reason is because the weather is becoming too cold and because his lectures are uninteresting." It should have read, "The reason is because the weather is becoming too cold and not because his lectures are uninteresting." The omission of the little word not makes a big difference. We offer apologies to Mr. L. A. Waltzinger.

Owing to the heavy snowfall of last night and to-day, the rugby game between McGill Juniors and Macdonald, scheduled for to-day, was postponed.

MACDONALD'S BUSH BASKETBALL CLUB

Plentiful Material For First Team—Excellent Prospects.

The first game of Macdonald's Indoor Baseball Bush League, between the Warblers and Royals, was fought to a breathless finish last night. The teams took the floor at seven o'clock—Warblers in the field, Royals at the bat.

Derrick started the game with a clean single. He was followed by W. Hay and Winters, both of whom reached first safely, and subsequently crossed the plate. The next three men were easy outs. Pettress was the first man up for the Warblers. He made a safe hit, and came home when Cooper rapped out a two-base hit. Hatch struck out. Bowen drew a base on balls and crossed the plate when Skinner poked out a three-bagger. Smith then tightened up and retired the side in quick succession.

Skinner retaliated by pitching airtight ball, and not allowing any of the Royals to see first. In their half of the second, Warblers got one man across the plate. In the third, the teams broke about even. Warblers again having a slight advantage over Royals. In the fourth, good hitting by Smith, Maw, Derrick and W. Hay netted the Royals three runs. The Warblers went out one-two-three in this stanza. The fifth saw things slightly reversed, Warblers getting two runs. In the sixth, Royals took the lead when they got four men across, Warblers only getting two. In the seventh, and last, inning, Royals could only get one run. Warblers needed two to win, and these two materialized early, giving them the game by the score of 14-13.

The game was featured by good hitting, but rather poor fielding—due to the lack of practice. But the material for a good first team is plentiful; and if the men only get out and practise, Macdonald's prospects in indoor baseball are excellent.

Let's Finish It Right

Canadians finish what they start. From the First of July, 1867, to the Fourteenth of August, 1914, we have not failed or faltered in any great undertaking.

Now we face the finish of what we undertook when we went to war. Victory came on the 11th of last November. But the finish does not come until we pay the cost of the preparation for that victory.

We will pay and finish the job. There is no doubt of that. Only, we must finish it right.

The cost of Victory is to be paid by the sale of Victory Bonds. These bonds will be bought either by the people or by the banks. If we let the banks buy them, we won't be finishing the job right. We will be shirking a responsibility. We will be doing great harm to the business of the country, hazarding our future prosperity.

This is a cold fact which we must face. It is a fact which, once appreciated by the million and a half Canadians who subscribed to the Victory Loan 1918, will make the Victory Loan 1919 the greatest success yet.

So let us forget high taxes, high prices, as our boys at Vimy Ridge, Courcellette, Hill 60 and St. Julien forgot their suffering and remembered only their great purpose.

LARGE NUMBER AT WITHROW LECTURE

First Meeting Was Held Last Night and Proved Great Success.

Yesterday evening at eight o'clock Dr. Withrow delivered the first of his four illustrated lectures in the Auditorium of the Central Y.M.C.A.

Mr. N. E. Peterson, the President of the Social Service Club of the University, opened the series with a few pointed remarks, and then introduced the speaker.

"Fit to Fight" was the film presented.

The scenario was originally written to impress men enlisted for service overseas with the necessity of keeping themselves, in every detail, actually "Fit to Fight." But it has as striking a lesson for those who "go over the top" in the battle of life every morning—and eternally.

The lecturer emphasized the points of the picture with a running fire of comment delivered "straight from the shoulder" as a man among men. Nearly every seat in the Hall was occupied. Not a single normal brain present could ever rid itself of the vivid pictures painted by "Fit to Fight."

To-night the second film of the series will be shown. Its title is "How Life Begins." A limited number of tickets remains. They will be given out in Strathcona Hall between four and six this afternoon.

On Friday a lecture, illustrated by 163 slides, will be given: "This evening programme is especially recommended."

THE GAS BILL.

The stranger was ushered into the society palatial presence.

"Ah, you wish my aid?" said the great seer.

"Well, madam," said the visitor, "in a way I do. You see, I've just called."

"Certainly, I know all about it. Just sit here. Ah, I see you have met with various disappointments lately."

"Quite true," interrupted the caller.

"Hush! Let me go on. Something which you have written for and still have not to get has eluded you time and again."

"Right you are," murmured the victim.

"But patience. Your end will be attained in the near future. Success is yours."

"I'm sure I'm very glad to hear it, madam," said the subject as he flourished a blue paper. "I've called five times with the gas bill. It's a good thing I'm to get it at last." — Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Why Don't We Make Roads Perfectly Level?

Roads are made with a curving upper surface, i. e., higher in the middle, in order that the rain will drain away from the road into the gutters or ditches which you find at the sides. You see water has the faculty of running only in one direction, and that is downward. If it cannot go down on one side or the other, it will collect in puddles and make the road impassable. For this reason we build our roads so they are higher in the middle than at the sides—not much higher; only about six inches or so—giving them just the gentle slope toward each side that is necessary to allow the water to run off gradually, but sufficiently sloping to keep the water from collecting in puddles in the road. Thus after the dust has been settled by the first rain that falls, most of the surplus rain that falls on the roads finally runs into the ditches at the side of the road.

DR. MACMILLAN ADDRESSES THE DELTA SIGMAS

Meeting Was Held Yesterday.

SOME EXPERIENCES.

Very Interesting Meeting Was Enjoyed By All.

A meeting of the Delta Sigma Society was held in the Comon Room yesterday afternoon, with the president, Miss Mawdsley, in the chair. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved; the president then introduced Dr. MacMillan, who had kindly consented to address the Society on this occasion. Miss Mawdsley expressed her regret that owing to some mistake in the delivery of the invitations many were absent, who would otherwise certainly have seized this opportunity of hearing Dr. MacMillan.

In opening, Dr. MacMillan said that he had just intended to speak on some literary subject, but that he realized his voice was heard sufficiently in these topics. "I have no lecture to give you," said Dr. MacMillan, "but I shall tell you a few bits of personal observations."

The armistice was signed on the 11th of Nov., but although we expected it, few of us were ready for the shock of peace.

To the men on the line, the signing of the armistice made little difference. In our billet, we sat in the mess, and spent most of our time cleaning our guns. It was just like an ordinary day, where there is no firing going on. Then came the order for the Canadian corps to march to the Rhine, but this was rescinded.

The speaker said that fine batteries of heavy artillery were sent; among these one from Montreal and the 76th Siege Battery of which Dr. MacMillan was in command.

Mons was left in excellent condition, and then, the speaker said, what he considered the hardest march of the war began. The weather was cold and stormy, and although the original plan was two days march and two days rest, the periods of rest had to be lengthened continually. The lines were torn up, and food was scarce, so that the men lived on strictly iron rations. There was no fodder for the horses, and they often had to go from early morning to late in the afternoon before being fed. The Belgians, of course, were supposed to supply the troops but they had little food themselves. Towards the end of the march conditions improved, as the railway lines from Cologne to Mons were in good condition.

The Belgians were very kind to the men, regarding them as their liberators, and the children especially showed their appreciation by offering to give up their rooms and beds. Dr. MacMillan said he would never forget their visit to Brussels on the day of the return of the Belgian King and Queen. Mass was celebrated by Cardinal Mercier, and the speaker was greatly impressed by the simplicity and kindness of the people.

Just before reaching the frontier the men became somewhat uneasy over the frequent rumors that there were sharpshooters in the district. However, these stories proved to be unfounded, and the goal was reached in safety.

The Germans were greatly impressed by the Highlanders, marching in parade dress, to the tune of the bagpipes.

At the Rhine, the speaker's battery was on the extreme right of the British line. Right next to them was the American Railroad Division. Dr. MacMillan expressed his admiration for these men, and said they never failed to give the Canadians any help they could in the way of materials, etc.

The billets were in the private summer home of a German doctor. The caretaker, who spoke excellent English, soon recovered from his suspicion and opened up the rooms which had been locked upon the arrival of the men. The government had emphasized the fact that the attitude of our men to the women and children must show the spirit of protection of the weak, for which we had fought. At first the people were extremely timid, but they became more reassured towards the end, and would ask for lories to haul the sugar and wood. No fraternization with the Germans was allowed.

Dr. MacMillan described the beauty of the Rhine, and said that in their vicinity was the walk along this river where Beethoven composed his Moonlight Sonata. The contrast between this peaceful and beautiful country and torn and ruined Belgium was a very bitter one.

The Germans all realized that they were beaten, and they had no hope for future prosperity. "Life was good before the war. It will never be again," said a German family to Dr. MacMillan.

The guns were drawn up but could not cross the line. The heavy batteries stretched over a distance of fifteen miles. For two months the guns were kept clean, and the men took exercise in the form of route marches, but on the whole they were given great liberty.

The Belgian cities were more or less intact. At one school on the desk was an English-French dictionary, and on the board the children had written in English "Dear Canadian soldiers, we hear you, why do you not help us?"

The speaker then urged all the members of the Delta Sigma to play their part in making the world free for children to live their lives unfettered. It is most necessary that we should all work together for the common good.

At the close of his very interesting lecture Dr. MacMillan was most heartily applauded, and the president moved a vote of thanks on behalf of all those present.

The meeting then adjourned to the dining room, where afternoon tea was enjoyed by all.

B.W. AND F. CLUB HOLD PRACTICE

Boxers Had Snappy Workout Last Night — Record Attendance.

The second boxing practice of the season was held yesterday afternoon in the Union. An unexpectedly large number were present, and all managed to get in some good hard practice work.

To begin with, the men were lined up and Mr. McBriarty gave instructions in the various blows, such as hooks, swings, face and body punches. Then the blows were practised by members, and a few combination blows were tried. Instruction was also given in advancing and retreating and in side stepping. While this is more or less routine work, it is of the greatest value in getting into condition, and is absolutely essential to new members.

Owing to the unusual size of the class, it was not possible yesterday to coach the men individually in bouts. They paired off according to weight, however, and each pair managed to have a good snappy workout. There are one hundred and thirty enrolled in the class, and with such a number it is inevitable that there will be a certain amount of confusion for the first few practices. Mr. McBriarty is endeavoring to get the work systematized, however, and by the next meeting hopes to be able to give individual attention to each man.

The attendance, up to date, promises a record year for the club, and it is hoped that all will turn out regularly and keep up the high standard already set.

The next practice will be held on Friday at 8.15.

UP TO DATE!

"I got tired of his electrocuting around."

"What do you mean by that?"

"It's more up-to-date than to say he is hanging around."

POLO PLAYERS HAND ZERO TO MAISONNEUVE

All Things Come To Those Who Wait.

A WIN AT LAST.

Barnstable Scores Winning Goal in Final Quarter.

Last night the McGill Polo team met the Maisonneuve Intermediates and scored the only goal of the evening. The game was fast and closely fought throughout, and was anyone's game up to the last minute. The McGill men had the edge on the visiting team in swimming and tackling but lacked condition, and proved very weak on combination plays. The Maisonneuve men passed the ball to each other continuously, with the result that several times it was only the brilliancy of "Curly" Walters in goal that staved off defeat for the home team. Laidley played good polo, but was too light to tackle very successfully. Bobs Winter was easily the speediest swimmer in the tank.

The game started at 8.30 p.m., before a large audience, among whom were many ladies. McGill defended the deep end first. Bobs Winter was first on the ball, and passed to Laidley, who returned it, when Winter shot. Maisonneuve goal keeper saved, and passed to Henderson, who attempted to pass to Aird. Winter blocked the pass and shot, and again failed to score. Davis obtained possession, passed to Wright, who lost the ball to Miller. Miller passed to Winter, who swam 20 feet and shot, but again failed to score. For a time shots were rained on the Maisonneuve team, but none reached the net. The ball then came down to the McGill end, but the Maisonneuve forwards were so well watched, by Miller, Wiggs and Winter that they could not get away. Shortly after the whistle blew "Quarter time," and the teams changed ends.

In the second quarter, Winter rained shots on the Maisonneuve goal, but never from close range, and so failed to tally. The ball was kept in front of the Maisonneuve goal, but their goal keeper, who played a splendid game, kept the ball from reaching the net. Half time blew with no score.

In the second half, during the first quarter, with McGill defending the deep end, Winter got away, and after some good passing, Bastable obtained possession and scored. The referee would not allow this goal, claiming Bastable was touching bottom when he scored. The Maisonneuve team made a determined effort to score, but were well held by Miller and Wiggs. The third quarter ended with no score.

In the fourth quarter, Miller went forward and Winter played defence. Maisonneuve did some smart passing in front of the McGill goal, during which Wiggs tackled Mousette, who had released the ball. Maisonneuve received a free throw just at a moment when Maine was standing in front of the McGill goal unguarded. Mousette passed to Maine, who netted the ball. This goal was also disallowed on the ground that Maine was touching bottom when he scored. The ball now came up to the Maisonneuve end. Winter passed to Miller, who was watched by two Maisonneuve men, who sank him before he obtained possession of the ball. Miller received a free throw. At this moment Bastable was unwatched. Miller passed to Bastable, who shot and scored. This was the only score of the evening. The game ended shortly after the final score being: McGill, 1; Maisonneuve, 0.

Following is the line-up of the teams: McGill.

Goal — Curley Walters.

Defence — Wiggs, Miller.

Forwards — Bastable, Winter, Laidley.

Forwards — Mousette, F. Aird, Maine.

Defence — J. Henderson, Geo. Davis.

Goal — W. Aird.

Maisonneuve.

A regular polo practice will be held to-night at 8.00. All men who have hats will bring them to this practice. The following men will be expected to turn out: Winter, Wiggs, Walters, Miller, Laidley, Bastable, Laidley, Schippel, Elder, Patten, Lyons, R. Foss, Wads.

ARTS UNDERGRAD SOCIETY.

A business meeting of the Arts Undergrad Society was held in the Union on Wednesday evening prior to the smoker. The newly elected officers — Treasurer, Mr. Macklater, and secretary, Mr. A. F. McIntyre — were introduced and made their bow.

Mr. L. Kern was elected Arts representative to the McGill Basketball Club.

NO GREAT RISK.

"I notice, when a friend asks you to give somebody a job, you always

"True."

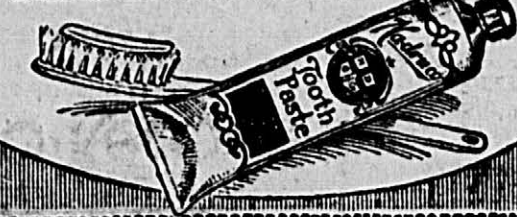

"Without asking anything about qualifications."

"It's this way. Half the prospective job-hunters never show up, and 20 per cent of the other half don't stick."

called by the needs of a Modern Arts Faculty, the Dean expressed the confidence he felt in the great part that the newly-dedicated Stadium would play in the lives of the students. Dr. Moyse then referred to the co-operation between professors and students fostered by these smokers, and concluded his address by quoting a piece of advice tendered by Rudyard Kipling to the students of McGill.

The next item on this very representative programme was a boxing-match between Kanigsberg and McCoullough. Unfortunately, the participants were not very evenly matched, and although Kanigsberg put up a splendid fight, McCoullough succeeded in winning the bout on a knockout.

Mr. Jack Farthing, president of the "Lit," urged the active support of all students in the University. In a few words he outlined the programme of the "Lit" for the coming season, stating that a series of inter-class debates were in progress, which were to serve as an introduction to more important debates and mock parliaments.

After "Persuasion Waltz" had been rendered by the Mandolin Club, Dr. Walter, the second speaker for the evening, gave his address. After describing the battle-royal waged between Dean Moyse and himself on one side and the Archeological Society on the other, he stated the present undergraduate body in Arts was of the very finest material, and expressed the hope that the new principal on his arrival would find the Arts Faculty second to none.

After Dean Moyse had said a few words in support of the Literary and Debating Society, refreshments were served to the famished audience. Here again unanimous satisfaction was expressed at the quality and quantity of the eats and of the quick way in which they were served.

The committee then, amid deafening cheers, brought forward the surprise of the evening—Art. Stag. Art., in his rendering of "Do, re, me, fa, so," showed himself to be a prima-donna of the highest rank, and retired under a storm of applause.

Dean Moyse sang his far-famed version of "Alouette," accompanied by the audience to the fullest extent of their lung-power. "God Save the King" and the McGill yell brought the entertainment to a close.

DES MOINES CONVENTION.

Not only is this convention at Des Moines the first Student Volunteer Convention to be held in six years, but it is the first held since the war. Because of the time at which it comes, because of the problems which this country and the world face, because of the great eagerness and desire for the convention already shown on all sides, and for many other reasons, it promises to be the greatest and most important student gathering ever held—one in which no institution can afford not to be fully represented.

Any college, after its protestations during the war of interest in world service, would be hypocritical if it did not do everything in its power now to learn the part its students can play in world politics, world re-organization, and world service. This can be learned at the convention as at no other place.

This convention will be the most representative student convention ever held in this country. The opportunity for intercollegiate fellowship, mutual understanding and help is unbounded. These are but three of the great number of general reasons why McGill is planning to send twenty students as a representative delegation to Des Moines.
